Dollhouse is the first person story game by the award-winning game studio Arcomonitor, also known for classics such as Diabolical Pitch, Fractal and the award-winning VR horror game Cave.]]> Infinite: The New AR Game Gear Edition 20 Jan 2017 16:13:43 +0000 Pektron Infinite is one of the more stylish and original games on the New AR Game Gear. Players interact with a stylized science fiction world by controlling a robot named Pektron. Players can move around by tilting the screen and control Pektron by pressing buttons on the touch-screen. Besides playing the game, Pektron can also be used to perform a variety of stunts that are reminiscent of watching the latest manga or animation. The latest Ar Plus games for the Gear line includes 16 games that were announced at Tokyo Game Show. The new games include Monster Crossroad which is a monster brawler game, Aoi Evolution for a classic arcade action game, and Quokka for a new golf-puzzle game. Ar Plus games are priced at $4.99 and can be downloaded on a microSD card. The New AR Game Gear is a handheld console similar to the Game Boy Advance that is sold as an accessory for the PlayStation 4 and other next-generation game consoles. The New AR Game Gear features a color 3.5-inch OLED screen that displays beautiful graphics like 1080p. It also features a built in rechargeable Lithium-ion battery for up to seven hours of gameplay. The console can be used as a controller for other game systems. The New AR Game Gear was first released in 1996 by NEC. There were only 2 Nintendo Game Packs released during that period. The first set included Super Mario Land: Shifting Sand Land and The Legend of Zelda: Link's Awakening, while the second Nintendo Game Pack

OK, I would like to get some people to help out with a census for Team Canada, the Olympic women's hockey team, who are making their first appearance at the Olympics. They are an extension of our Canadian Teams and the players will be listed on the Canadian Teams page, together with Canadian Teams alumni. I need a good (reliable) site for recording the information, that can add players quickly, and can be set up to generate lists of Canadian teamers who have been at the Olympics. It must be free, otherwise I may have to give you a life-changing sum of money.

Lab-grown skin could be the future of the skin care industry. Imagine walking out of a pharmacy, sporting a full face of makeup, while being able to wipe your face, without having to put a single drop of water on it. Well, most cosmetics contain chemicals that can affect you and your skin over the long term. To make things better, researchers in the biomedical field are now developing "cultured human skin" or "dermal equivalent". Dermal equivalent is a tissue that can be cultured from a patient'

Offworld Trading Company is a dynamic game set in a distant future. Working for The Exchange, your goal is to construct an interstellar colony on Mars and turn it into the center of interplanetary trade. All the while, you'll work towards the greater goal of making a profit. Using an innovative game engine, Offworld Trading Company combines trade, research, base management, and deep space exploration into one seamless experience. Start trading near your home base or explore the galaxy in search of new markets! Key Game Features: - A trade/exploration hybrid. Trade to outposts and space stations to acquire resources, technology, and new market possibilities. Explore new planets with orbiting satellites to find rich veins of ore and rich atmosphere to extract precious gases. - Resource discovery. Discover new resources on over 60 planets, moons, asteroids, and space stations. From rare metals to exotic alien biomes, there's a lot to mine. - Planet Management. Build your colony and manage resources, growth, and buildings. Your outpost's needs will constantly change based on the time of year, the amount of solar power you generate, and the demand for different kinds of buildings. - A Dynamic Economy. Your profits will fluctuate based on the markets and the planets you own. Increase and decrease the supply of goods to increase profits. It's as dynamic as you want it to be! - A Deep Space Exploration experience. Invest in an interstellar exploration vessel to mine near- and distant planets, talk with the aliens, and find valuable resources. - Automated Economic and Political Systems. The Exchange will quickly adjust your operations and your finances to help the colony grow. This includes automatically building larger and more efficient Outposts, building faster and cheaper Extractors, and taxing new markets to gather resources. - An Automated Outpost Design and Management System. As your colony grows, you can opt to upgrade current buildings to larger ones that will allow you to produce more and higher quality goods. Increase your outpost's defenses and outposts, and hire settlers to work for your colony. Expand your outposts and research new technologies! Also available in the PC version is a single player campaign and new multiplayer modes. Installation Instructions 1. Download the Europa trade-off.zip file into your Steam\steamapps\common\Offworld Trading Company\purchased\ folder. 2. Install the patch and extract Europa trade-off.zip into the main folder.
